In February 2021 – as part of a weekend Sacred Dance Guild Festival celebrating our 63rd “birthday”, the Sacred Dance Guild hosted the first in a series of “Quarterly Conversations” with five fascinating panelists responding to the question “Is THIS Sacred Dance?” The themes of that first conversation were Environment, Differing Abilities, Social Justice, Community Connections and Ancestral Dreaming.

June 19th will be the 2nd in the series. For this 90-minute panel conversation we are engaging dancers from five spiritual expressions – Jewish, Hindu, North American First Nations, Sufi and Christian.
